

Just a Must presents the English language premiere of

DEAD AT LAST, NO MORE AIR

by Werner Schwab, translated by Meredith Oakes

directed by Vanda Butkovic

produced by Berislav Juraic

Dead at Last, No More Air is a brutal, irreverent and bizarrely comical piece about what happens when an emerging stage production is sabotaged by outsiders. Following a dispute with the cast, the director replaces all the actors with pensioners from a nearby home for the elderly. At first compliant and polite, the 'forgotten and dispossessed' gradually start to question the director's authority, leading to a 'coup d'état' where the theatre's cleaning lady is selected as the group's leader. Not everybody survives the new order.
